Your prime isn’t in the past. It’s waiting to be engineered

Built for leaders who refuse to accept decline.

Second Prime exists to ensure a leader’s most powerful years are still ahead — using data, systems, and disciplined execution to extend peak physical and cognitive performance across decades.

The market sells temporary results

SUCCESS WITHOUT DECLINE.

CAPACITY THAT HOLDS UNDER PRESSURE.

Messaging Pillars

01
CLARITY

Reduce to capacity, then compound. Remove everything that dilutes focus or obscures the path forward.

02
EFFICIENCY

Elite outcomes without chaos. Maximum return on every investment of time, energy, and attention.

03
SYSTEMS

Reduce decision fatigue. Build architecture that runs when willpower doesn't show up.

04
STANDARD

High-standard health for high-standard lives. The brand is a mirror of who the client already is.

Voice Principles

| WE ARE | WE ARE NOT |
| --- | --- |
| Declarative | Trendy |
| Minimal | Cute |
| Measured | Aggressive gym talk |
| Precise | Overly clinical |
| Quietly confident | Motivational-poster energy |

Voice Examples

NOT THIS

"Unlock peak performance with revolutionary science."

THIS

"Capacity is the advantage."

"Structure beats intensity."

"Standards create outcomes."

VISUAL DOCTRINE

RESTRAINT. STRUCTURE. AUTHORITY.

Design Rules

01 GRID-FIRST COMPOSITION

Every element anchors to the 12-column grid. Nothing floats arbitrarily.

02 STRONG MARGINS / GENEROUS WHITESPACE

120px margins. Space is structure, not waste.

03 HIGH CONTRAST, MINIMAL ACCENT

Slate dominates. Sand punctuates sparingly. Color earns its place.

04 MODULAR BLOCKS, NO DECORATION

Ornament is weakness. Clarity is the aesthetic.

05 EVERYTHING FEELS PERMANENT

No trends. No effects. Built to last without revision.

Logo Colorways

White on Slate-1000 — Primary

Dark on Slate-50 — Reversed

Standard — Slate base

Misuse

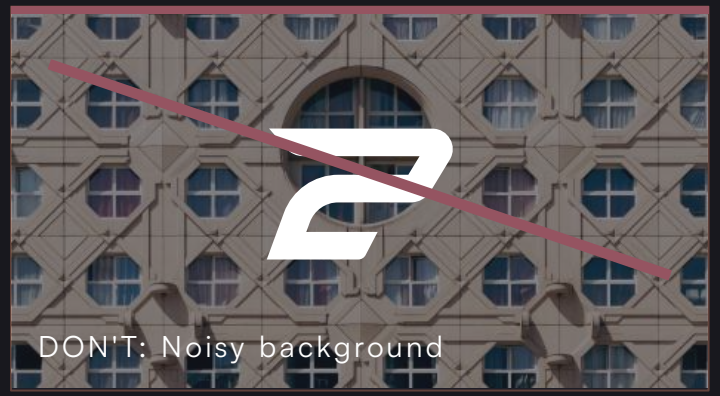
Never do this.

DON'T: Stretch

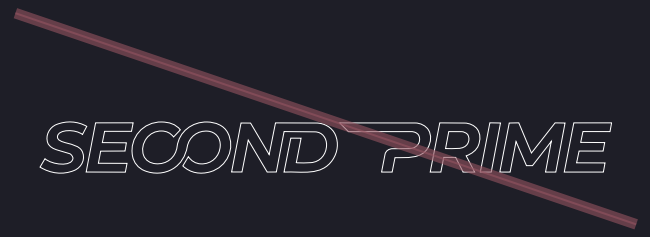
DON'T: Add shadow

DON'T: Add glow



DON'T: Noisy background

DON'T: Change colors



DON'T: Outline the logotype

COLOR PHILOSOPHY

SLATE

Structure

Slate leads. The foundation of every composition.

TEAL

Controlled Power

Teal punctuates. The accent that earns attention.

SAND

Systems Intelligence

Sand informs. Data and precision made visible.

Slate leads. Teal punctuates. Sand informs.

> If it feels colorful, it's off-brand.

Restraint is the primary design decision.

Accessibility + Contrast

✓ Body text contrast targets WCAG AA minimum

✗ Don't use Sand-200 for text on Slate backgrounds

✓ Teal-200 works well as highlights on Slate-1000

✗ Keep micro text in Slate-200 or above only

Grid + Spacing Rules

12-COLUMN GRID

Every element anchors to column boundaries. No floating elements.

MODULAR BLOCKS

Compositions built from stacked, aligned rectangular blocks.

8PT SPACING SYSTEM

All vertical and horizontal spacing is a multiple of 8.

ONE FOCAL POINT PER LAYOUT

Every slide or page has a single primary hierarchy.

120PX MARGINS

Generous margins create architectural breathing room.

Imagery Direction

DO

- Controlled, real, minimal — not staged
- Architectural forms + geometric framing
- Calm strength; stillness under pressure
- Low depth of field, high contrast mood
- Men over 35; seasoned, not strained

DON'T

- Sweat-forward gym clichés
- Lab / stock-photo aesthetics
- Aggressive beast mode vibe
- Inspirational poster energy
- Before/after transformation imagery

Data Visualization Rules

Slate background

All data sits on Slate-900 or Slate-1000. Never white.

One chart per view

Never two charts competing on the same canvas.

Data in Teal range

Use Teal-200 through Teal-700 for data series. Readable against dark backgrounds.

No rainbow palettes

Never vary colors randomly. Use the Teal scale for all series.

Key metric in Sand-400

One highlighted number or callout per view — in Sand-400.

No unnecessary gridlines

Remove all decoration. Minimum axis, maximum clarity.

SECOND PRIME

What Breaks the Brand

OVER-DESIGN

Multiple effects, gradients, or decorative elements.

TOO MANY ACCENTS

Sand and Teal must be earned. Never decorative fills.

CASUAL LANGUAGE

Conversational, bro-ish, or motivational-poster copy.

TREND VISUALS

Instagram filters, lens flare, duotone effects.

EXCESS COPY

More than necessary. Every word earns its space.

FRAGMENTED HIERARCHY

Multiple large elements competing for attention.

RESTRAINT IS THE FLEX.

Second Prime is not a program.

It is a standard.
